C) Vote Casting and Counting

The Chairman of the meeting or the person assigned by the Chairman will inform the meeting as to the methods of vote casting and counting prior to discussion of meeting agenda.

1. Vote Casting

- Each of the shareholders shall have one vote per share.
- The Chairman will ask the meeting as to whether there are any shareholders who wish to object (not-approve) or abstain their voting in each agenda and if any, must be informed to the meeting through Inventech Connect for e-Voting.

- If there are any shareholders who do not approve or abstain votes, such shareholders must do so through Inventech Connect for e-Voting. Any shareholders who cancel the votes or do not cast any vote shall be deemed to agree with such agenda according to the Company's practice regarding counting of the vote. Shareholders can change their vote until the closing of voting session for each agenda item.

- If there is no shareholder's objection or abstinent, it shall be deemed that the meeting unanimously resolves to approve such agenda as proposed by the Chairman, unless there are checked marks of not-approve or abstinent votes specified in the proxy form given to the Company where the Company has recorded and counted such not approve or abstinent votes for the relevant agenda.

- In the event where a shareholder has appointed a proxy to attend and vote on its behalf pursuant to its intention that has already been specified in the proxy form, the Company will count and record such votes at the time of registration for the meeting in order to facilitate the proxy so that such that the proxy will not have to cast the votes in the ballot again in the meeting and such votes will then be added up with the votes aforementioned.

2. Vote Counting

- The Company uses Inventech Connect for e-Voting for counting votes.
- In counting the number of votes of each agenda of the meeting, the Company will count the votes of the shareholders casted in the meeting and those specified in the proxy form previously given to the Company by the proxy prior to attending the meeting room while the number of not-approve and abstinent votes will be subtracted from the total number of votes of the shareholders attending the meeting and entitled to vote.
- After the end of casting of the votes in each agenda, the Chairman will announce the result of vote counting by informing the meeting the number and percentage of approval votes, disapproval (not-approve) votes and abstinent votes, separately.
